Relief road 'must be given high priority'

A LONG-AWAITED relief road for Haverhill, taking traffic away from the town centre, looks set to be built sooner than expected.

Developers will have to build the whole of the northern relief road – linking the main Cambridge and Bury St Edmunds routes – within the first phase of a huge 750-home estate – rather than in sections as each phase of development goes ahead.

No more than 400 homes can be occupied before the relief road is available for use.

Villagers living nearby will also get their wish as developers are to be encouraged to adopt an alternative route for the road, moving it, and some of the adjacent new homes, from higher ground to reduce the visual impact.

Campaigning for the road has been going on for many years, in a bid to reduce congestion in the town centre, which is expected to get worse when a new Tesco store opens on the former Station Yard site in 2009.

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Members of St Edmundsbury Borough Council's Sustainable Development Panel approved a concept statement for the development on Tuesday which stated that the whole road must be built within the first phase of work.

Alan Rand, principal planning officer for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said Suffolk County Council's highways department had insisted on this.

Mr Rand said: "The support of the highways department has given us the ammunition we need. They say we need the road before any more houses can be provided. This concept statement is not the vehicle to change the route of the road, but strongly encourages it.

"The route of the road will be set out in the masterplan to be produced by the developers for the area and at that stage we would expect the revised route to be used. It is a common sense solution that simply moves the road from the higher ground."

Residents in villages surrounding Haverhill feared they would be "swallowed up" by the town when the huge housing development and a new relief road are built.

Councillors were told that the largest number of comments on the development were requests to alter the route of the proposed relief road.

Parish councils from Great Wratting, Little Wratting, Withersfield and Haverhill Town Council, as well as other individuals, felt the line of the road should be lowered so that it, and houses adjacent to it, would be less prominent and not seen in villages some distance away.

New fun centre is child's play

YOUNGSTERS finally got the chance to let off steam at a huge new indoor children's play centre which opened at Haverhill yesterday.
Boomerangs at Boundary Road has 10,000 sq ft of space for up to 200 children, with a climbing frame, separate baby area, rooms for parties, and healthy family food.
Opening the centre is the end of a frustrating four-year battle for husband and wife business partners Andy and Donna Anderson. It continued right up to the opening, which had to be put back because of a late delivery.
Andy said their first morning had been "manic" and added: "Since we opened the doors it has been really hectic.
"We are looking forward to the weekend when we expect to be very busy."

Village fair on target to net more than £5k for charities

A FINE morning brought the crowds out to Thurlow and guaranteed another successful fair on Sunday.
Maintaining the country theme of the event, visitors watched children give a display of maypole dancing.
David Seamark showed the prowess of his sheepdogs as they skilfully herded geese and Rede Hall Farm brought along a pair of magnificent Suffolk Punch Horses.
Abbey Twirlets majorette team and Linton Radio Model Car Club also gave displays in the main ring.
A nine-metre high climbing wall provided a challenge for adventurous youngsters and the reptile tent, fun dog show and other side stalls meant there was something for everyone to enjoy.
The bottle stall manned with help from members of the Haverhill branch of Barclays Bank, raised funds for Addenbrooke's neo natal baby unit and Thurlow and Bradley Preschool.
It is estimated that the fair raised more than £5,000, to be donated to local village organisations.

■ LOTTA BOTTLE . . . left, the bottle stall raised funds for charity and, far left, brave souls had the chance to tackle the climbing wall. CP.

A COUNCILLOR wants people's view on the lesser of two evils to find savings of £1 million and set next year's Council Tax .

BY Jo Deeks
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

St Edmundsbury Borough Council will start putting its budget together next week, a process that will last until February. Coun Paul Farmer, the council's portfolio holder with budget responsibility, said he was keen to encourage debate as the council looks at its options.

He said: "As a result of our costs rising above inflation, inadequate Government grants, and the need to fund new initiatives, we have to find nearly £1 million in savings or income next year. There are some difficult decisions to be made. The alternatives are stark – put up Council Tax or cut costs and increase income. Hiking up the tax means everyone pays, charging more for services means users pay.

"Should we be looking to cut grants? Charge for parking at our country parks? Make festival tickets more expensive? Charge more for collecting bulky goods? Or do we simply put up Council Tax?

"What do people find the lesser of the evils? That is the kind of debate I want to start."

Man cleared of bat attack on neighbour

BY Jo Deeks
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A MAN accused of hitting his neighbour with a baseball bat has walked free from court after being cleared of an assault charge by a jury.

Ian Bennett-Hayward had pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault occasioning grievous bodily harm at Ipswich Crown Court, claiming that he had acted in self-defence.

Throughout his four-day trial, ending last Thursday, the 23-year-old had denied having started an incident outside his home in Haverhill which left the neighbour suffering a head injury that required stitches.

Bennett-Hayward, of Trefoil Court, Haverhill, said he had been defending himself when he became embroiled in a struggle with Nicholas Vaughan in February.

When the trial opened, the jury heard prosecution allegations that Bennett-Hayward had lashed out at Mr Vaughan when he went to complain that a gate had been left open.

As Mr Vaughan turned to leave he was struck on the back of the head with a baseball bat so hard that the bat broke into two pieces, claimed prosecutor Nicholas Cotter.

That blow was followed by others and both men became engaged in a fight.

The court heard that Bennett-Hayward had complained to the police following the incident, claiming he had been the victim.

In his defence, Bennett-Hayward said he had been the innocent party when Mr Vaughan had arrived at the door of his house, instigating violence.

He told the court claims that he had struck Mr Vaughan from behind with a baseball bat were untrue, as was an allegation that he had afterwards continued to land blows on Mr Vaughan.

■ AND WE'RE OFF . . . above, Matthew and Tom Lawfield at Land's End and, below, at the most northerly point in the UK. CP.

Dad and son finish charity trek

AFTER more than 25 years working as a GP Matthew Lawfield might have been expected to have a well earned rest.

But instead he decided to set out on a mammoth journey walking the length of Britain with his 21-year-old son Tom.

Dr Lawfield, 57, and Tom, who is just starting his third year of study at Bradford University, started their 1,250-mile trek in May and completed it 80 days later after walking from Lands End to John O'Groats, as well as the islands of Orkney and Shetland. Both keen bird watchers, they hope to raise in the region of £2,000 for the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds from sponsorship.

After returning to the family home at Helions Bumpstead, Tom said they felt privileged to have seen so much beautiful countryside, some quite rare birds and to have spent so much time together.

Tom said: "This was something that my father especially wanted to do when he retired and I was happy to join him. We actually did it slightly quicker than we expected, we did about 20 miles a day. We wanted to make it a scenic tour of Britain rather than taking the quickest route. We did it in the wettest summer on record, but we had the right clothes and we were prepared for it. We did some camping, some B&Bs and even some camping barns, so it was a mix of accommodation.

"Because of the weather it was not that good for birding, but the highlight for me was seeing peregrine falcons at the very beginning of the trip, really close, and then four or five harbour porpoises in Scotland.

"We got along fine and really enjoyed being able to spend so much time together, getting into some very deep discussions. We did not have any real mishaps.

We did get absolutely soaked in a gale at Cape Wrath in Scotland which was pretty hairy.

"We were really pleased with the support we got and would like to thank everyone who sponsored us."

Protesters go to market with GP surgery petition

SURGERY staff will hold a stall at Haverhill market on Saturday to get more signatures on a petition to fight budget cuts which would mean fewer doctors and appointments.

Protesters will man the stall on the Market Square from 9am and will be joined by MP Richard Spring during the morning. Mr Spring has supported the campaign against the cuts proposed by the Suffolk Primary Care Trust, which could total up to £400,000 for practices across the town including £120,000 for Christmas Maltings surgery alone.

So far the PCT has defended its new funding formula, which is said to level out funding levels to practices across Suffolk. However, as the fastest growing town in Suffolk, with no hospital or x-ray facilities, protesters feel Haverhill is unfairly penalised.

Ann Sissons, practice manager at the Christmas Maltings surgery, which could have to cut appointments from 80,000 to 45,000 a year and lose two doctors, said staff there were determined to fight the cuts as far as they possibly could.

She said: "We feel it is so unjust when the need here is so great. We already have around 2,000 signatures and we would like to get as many as 10,000 to show the PCT the strength of feeling."

New campus admits first students

Students will study full and part-time.

Clare Avery, Associate Dean for Suffolk Business School, said: "We are delighted that the start of term is nearly upon us and are looking forward to beginning to teach for the first time as University Campus Suffolk. Suffolk Business School courses are designed for full-time students and for those people who wish to study while they are working in order to develop their careers – and this dynamic mix makes for a great learning environment."

‘Save our bus service’ plea

BY Jo Deeks
Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A HEALTH worker has launched a petition to stop a popular bus route being axed.

John Taylor regularly travels to work on the Beestons 236 service from Haverhill to Sudbury. However, changes to the route from Monday mean he will no longer be able to do this.

Mr Taylor, 38, of Claydon Close, Castle Camps, said the route, which was used by people making shopping trips to Haverhill, also provided an important link to Ipswich, Colchester and Chelmsford.

Mr Taylor said: “I would not bother if there was hardly anyone using it, but it always seems to be quite full.

“I feel these changes are ill-considered and will cause inconvenience to passengers, many of whom will be forced to abandon the buses and use cars instead.

“The changes involve axing the 12.45 Haverhill to Sudbury bus which is a well used service particularly by pensioners and young mothers.

“Between 10.45am and 2.50pm there is now no service between Haverhill and Sudbury. The 5.10pm Sudbury to Haverhill bus has also been axed meaning the last bus back from Sudbury will be at 4.10.pm.

“Anyone working in Sudbury will no longer be able to use the buses to travel to and from work.”

Tom Munsen, operations manager for Beesons of Hadleigh, said the decision to cut the service had been an economic one based on low usage.

He said: “It is unfortunate, but if you don’t use it, you lose it. We don’t get any subsidies on the route and with the price of diesel and other costs we cannot afford to run buses empty. We have seen elsewhere that 1,000 people sign a petition, but only two of them actually use it.”

Forensic evidence snared killer driver

A MOTORIST was jailed after forensic experts matched her footprint to a brake pedal to prove she caused a crash that killed a stockbroker.

Anne Milton, 46, initially denied driving a car that veered across a motorway into the path of an oncoming vehicle driven by Haverhill resident Alexander Palmer.

But police used fibres and marks on her footwear to show she was behind the wheel at the time of the M11 crash on August 30 last year.

At Chelmsford Crown Court, Milton, of Stanmore, Middlesex, was jailed for seven-and-a-half years after pleading guilty to causing death by dangerous driving and driving while disqualified.

Milton, who appeared in court in a wheelchair after suffering multiple fractures in the crash, had told police that Michael Wall, her front seat passenger, was driving at the time of the tragedy.

Judge Christopher Ball QC, said: “Only when faced with the weight of evidence against her did she enter her guilty plea.”

Cherub statue is stolen

A STATUE has been stolen from the gatepost of a house at Little Wratting.

The 3ft-high statue – a cherub playing an ocarina resting on a square plinth – was stolen from the gate to a property at Haverhill Road. The incident happened between 7pm on Saturday and 8am the next day.

Anyone with information should call Clare police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Man 'took vehicle at gunpoint'

AN ARMED robber who targeted churches in Suffolk, including one at Haverhill, stole an elderly woman's car at gunpoint, a court heard.

Carl Dagg was described at Ipswich Crown Court as "paranoid and delusional" and was said to have hoped police would "shoot him dead" when he held up the pensioner outside a church near Ipswich.

Dagg, 35, of Foundation Street, Ipswich, admitted aggravated burglary with an air weapon, stealing cash from St Felix Church and a property at Wentworth Terrace, Haverhill, on May 17. He also admitted armed robbery, burglary and dangerous driving and asked for 98 similar offences to be considered.

The court heard he stole Jill Pryke's Rover car at gunpoint outside the church in Rushmere two days after the Haverhill burglary and the day after the dangerous driving offences.

Lindsay Cox, for Dagg, said police had described him as paranoid and his ex-girlfriend said he was delusional. Dagg was remanded in custody for reports before sentencing in October.

From spade to screen

Coun John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, Toby Baines, chairman of developers Citigrove Securities, and Matt Eyre from Cineworld led the ceremony to celebrate the start of construction on the site which is due to open next August.

Coun Griffiths said a cinema had been top of a wish-list for residents, particularly among young people, and that dream was now on the threshold of becoming a reality. He added: "By putting £10 million into this scheme we have put our money where our mouth is. It will bring a tremendous amount of excitement, entertainment, enjoyment, as well as economic vitality and jobs."

Mr Baines said: "We hope it all goes according to plan and everyone will bear with us. We will try to cause as little disruption as possible."

The complex will provide 110 new jobs, with a drive-through KFC, Subway shop, Prezzo and Frankie & Benny's restaurants opening alongside the cinema, plus more than 400 parking spaces being created.

Cancer sessions launched

NEWLY-diagnosed cancer patients are being invited to new information days to answer some of their questions.

Cancer nurses in West Suffolk started the sessions after noticing that many patients were unsure on where to find support in the first six months after diagnosis.

The sessions offer advice on coping with the emotional impact, lifestyle and dietary tips, help on finance and how to prepare for consultations.

West Suffolk Hospital's team will hold them at three-monthly intervals.

Vanessa MacLeod, one of the clinical nurse specialists, said "We talk about what cancer is and we look at the myths and misconceptions about cancer. It's a lot to come to terms with and patients need help."

Those who want to take part in the next day-long session can phone Judith Forsdyke on (01284) 712 703 to book a place.

■ WHEEL APPEAL . . . some of the Genzyme charity team in training. CP.

Firm's double charity bid

STAFF at Haverhill biotech firm Genzyme are hoping to raise more than £4,000 for their local hospice and then get it doubled by their employers.

Employees are currently training for a month of activities to raise funds for St Nicholas' Hospice and if they achieve their goal, the final sum will be doubled through match funding by Genzyme.

As part of Genzyme's local celebration of 25 years in Haverhill, it is anticipated some 150 volunteers, more than half the workforce of the Genzyme Haverhill site, will be actively involved in the campaign.

Events are set to include Nintendo Wii and connect4 contests in the canteen, a charity auction and race night, sponsored bike riding, running and a football tournament.

In addition, a number of staff members have volunteered more than 100 hours of their free time at the hospice.

Barbara Gale, the hospice's chief executive, said: "We rarely see fund-raising and volunteering coming together in such a symbiotic way. It is invaluable."

Trust head to retire

THE chairman of the West Suffolk Hospital NHS Trust is to retire.

David Arr led the board for two years but is unable to go on because of business commitments.

Keith Pearson of NHS East of England, said: "David Arr has overseen a dramatic turn around. The trust achieved the shortest waiting times ever for inpatients, day cases and outpatients."

Deputy John Cullum will be acting chair until a new appointment is made.

Student makes national top 10

A HAVERHILL student has achieved one of the 10 highest marks in the country for his art and design GCSE.

Alexander Flood, who lives at Great Bradley, sat the double exam at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Haverhill, and also gained two A* and nine A grade passes in other subjects.

Jerry Jarvis, director of the UK's largest examining group Edexcel, said: "This is a tremendous achievement. We send our congratulations to Alexander."

Football book author seeks Rovers return

AN EX-REFEREE is looking for former Haverhill Rovers players for the launch of his new book on the club next month.

Roy Brazier, 70, hopes the book will be out for Christmas.

He would like to trace players such as Brian Caine, Reg Pearce and Kingsley Hull.

Roy said: "They are successful at the moment, so it is a good time to have written it."

Anyone who can help should ring (01440) 714 877.

Summer was the most miserable on record

BY John Morgan
Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

IF you thought this summer was a damp squib, you would be right.

The UK's summer looks set to be the wettest since records began in 1914, the Met Office has announced.

Cambridgeshire residents may not have suffered as badly as some, but the county's eighth wettest summer on record ensured plenty of barbecues were rained off.

The county was soaked with 229.9mm of rain between June 1 and August 28, which was 58 per cent above average and made our summer the wettest since 1997.

The average temperature in Cambridgeshire during the same period was 16.02 C, 0.02 C below average.

The Met Office says the unusual position of the jet stream has caused the UK's wet weather by sucking in successive depressions.

Thousands of people suffered misery as a result – floods in Gloucestershire, Yorkshire and Humberside in July caused an estimated £3 billion damage.

Julie Reinger, weather forecaster for BBC Look East, said: "It has been a very wet summer across England.

"Thankfully, here in the East we have avoided the worst of the rainfall that caused all the problems in Gloucestershire and Yorkshire, but even here we have seen some very wet conditions.

"The good news is that for the first week of September the weather is looking better. I certainly have my fingers crossed for an Indian summer."

The Met Office has announced that provisional rainfall figures up to August 28 show that 358.5mm of rain has fallen in the UK, just above the previous record of 358.4mm in 1956.

If the figure is confirmed when all the weather stations send in their data, it would make this summer the wettest on record.

Keith Groves, the Met Office's head of forecasting, said: "These figures confirm what most people have already been thinking – this summer has been very wet and very disappointing for most."

Experts blame the wet summer on the position of the jet stream, a ribbon of high altitude strong winds which brings weather systems across the UK.

For much of this summer, the jet stream has been further south and stronger than in a typical summer, bringing rain to many parts of the country.

The Met Office said the high rainfall was not out of line with climate change, which is expected to bring hotter summers along with more intense rain and higher risks of flooding.

Hunters hunted by police

WITH the illegal hare coursing season set to begin Cambridgeshire police are launching the successful Operation Dornier for the fourth year running.

Inspector Dick Lowings, part of the Rural Community Action Team (RCAT), said: "We will be taking positive action to target hare coursers by building on past successes.

"Over the last three years hare coursing has significantly reduced, but we are not taking our eye off the ball. We will continue to tackle this issue in a robust manner, and we will prosecute offenders, spearheaded by this RCAT campaign.

"If any members of the public are aware of hare coursing taking place, please call police.

"Our aim is to continue this success and ensure we severely disrupt and convict those who are involved.

"Hare coursing is not only illegal but also extremely disruptive.

"Officers will continue to use tactics that have been used in previous years, such as intelligence gathering and high visibility patrols."

Anyone with any information about hare coursing should contact police on 0845 4564564.

Singing fans go Ballistic

IPSWICH Town supporters at Haverhill are teaming up to make a charity record.

Ipswich Town fan Malcolm Thompson and members of ITISC, a newly-formed supporters' club in Haverhill, are making a recording of an old Ipswich Town song with the group, The Ballistics, to raise money for the MS Society.

The club's president is Ipswich Town legend Kevin Beattie, whose wife Maggie has MS. When Kevin said he wanted to thank the society for all its support, Malcolm thought this would be a fun way of doing just that.

Malcolm said: "It's going to be a great experience making a record, and all for a good cause too. Who knows, maybe it will hit the charts, so move over McFly!

"Kevin is a lifelong hero of mine and to have him as president of our supporters' club, and to help him in this way, is an honour.

"I am already preparing myself for a 45-mile charity run to the ground at Town's last home game as another way of raising funds."

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Malcolm, who runs the supporters' club, is recording the song with help from members and fellow Town fans who sit in the same stand. He hopes to sell more than 1,000 copies of it via the soon-to-be launched website www.itisc.org.uk

Until then, copies can be bought by emailing Malcolm on itfc@fsmail.net

Malcolm would like to thank The Ballistics, Springvale Studios and Karl Adams of Digital Disc Duplication, Bury St Edmunds.

Francis' clean start a sparkling success

WHEN Francis Rutter took voluntary redundancy and decided to do something completely different he started a business doing a job most people hate - cleaning ovens.

Francis set up a local franchise for national company Ovenclean nine months ago and it is the latest firm to back the Weekly News 'Buy Local' campaign. Ovenclean was formed 12 years ago and covers the whole country through franchises such as that run by Francis, using a tried and tested cleaning process with its own brand of eco-friendly and non-caustic cleaning materials.

The oven cost ranges from £40 to £80 and Francis can also tackle Agas, grills, hobs, extractors, microwaves and barbecues. Within two hours he can have them sparkling again.

Francis said: "I worked in PAYE for 23 years and I decided to do something completely different. As I have only been going for nine months I am still building the business up, but it has been very well received. I have done about 25 houses on the Meadowlands estate alone.

"A lot of people are starting to see it as a routine maintenance thing, like a boiler. The products we use are all eco-friendly."

Francis covers postcode areas CB9, CB10 to CO8, CO9 and CO10. For more information, ring (01440) 761 515 or visit www.ovenclean.com

Chris in sky jump

OSTEOPATH Christine Jefferys is about to leap into the unknown to help raise cash for a centre for elderly people.

Christine, 30, lives in Kedington and is a self-employed osteopath at Wilburs Gym in Haverhill.

On September 23 she will be doing a 10,000 ft tandem skydive – free falling at 120mph for 5,000 feet – from an airfield at Attleborough, Norfolk.

She is raising money for Greenfields Day Care Centre, Haverhill, where her mother is the manager, and which provides a weekly meeting place for the elderly. Christine said: "I chose Greenfields Day Care Centre because it is a local organisation. I also feel that elderly people often get forgotten about and can feel isolated, due to mobility problems. Meeting up on a Monday allows them to interact and socialise with other members and have fun! If this is shut down, which may be a threat next year, it would be a big blow to the community.

"Skydiving is not something I have ever done before, I am up for a bit of a challenge and I am scared of heights!"

Car crimes are linked

A CAR was stolen and two others attacked during one night in the latest spate of vehicle crime in Haverhill.

A grey Fiat Uno, registration J592CEX, was stolen at Alde Road between 4pm on August 28 and 11am the next day. In the same road on the same night, a blue Vauxhall Astra was broken into. The offenders also smashed the window of a grey VW Golf in a garage block and damaged the steering lock. Police are linking the crimes. Regarding the first two incidents, call Pc Jonathan Chapman, and for the third one contact Sgt Matthew Gilbert, on (01284) 774 100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Townsfolk among the worst savers

SPEND, spend, spend – the residents of Haverhill are among the worst savers in the county.

A survey of savers carried out for the Ipswich Building Society revealed that adults and children in Haverhill are among the worst in Suffolk.

It also suggests residents should think more about their financial future.

The research which included interviews with 581 children, aged between five and 12, from November 25 to December 6 last year, placed Haverhill at the bottom of seven Suffolk locations for adult saving levels and second from bottom for children.

The news comes on the back of reports showing high levels of debt among teenagers nationally, which is to be tackled in the classroom as the Government introduces formal lessons in debt management under changes to the national curriculum.

Brigitte Haig, manager of Haverhill's Citizens Advice Bureau, said their three advisers were trained to deal with money and debt matters.

She said: "We are here to help anybody who would like advice on their saving opportunities. They could also get guidance from the Suffolk Credit Union. They help our clients from Haverhill and can offer loans.

"We are always happy to give advice to people on how to manage their money and draw up a budget. Anyone is welcome to come to our outreach session at the Clements Children's Centre on Monday mornings, where there is a confidential room."

The study showed residents in Aldeburgh were the best savers.

Monday: RBL bingo, Legion Hall, 8pm.
Tuesday: RBL women's section, Legion Hall, 7.30pm.
Poppy Race Day: A party of 56 members and friends of Kedington and District Royal British Legion attended the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal Race Day at Newmarket on August 25, on one of the hottest days of the summer, and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. The large number of standards parading up the course prior to the first race presented quite a spectacle and was warmly applauded by a large crowd. It is hoped the Poppy Appeal benefited substantially. The Kedington branch Hall Fund also benefited from a raffle on the coach organised by Brian Tyrrell and wife Dawn, to the extent of £347. Thanks to all who supported the day. The next branch general meeting is at the Legion Hall on Thursday, September 20, at 7.30pm. On Friday, September 28, there will be a social evening with buffet and entertainment, 8pm to midnight.

Gardeners hoping for better luck next year!

AS summer turns to autumn, Haverhill in Bloom committee chairman Tim Radford reflects on a difficult few months for gardeners.

This column has been challenging this year. With such ferocious sun unseasonably early during April coupled with such long periods of wet since then this year's growers have been presented with an unusual climate. In my discussions with gardeners it has also depended what they normally grow as some have had bumper crops of items which are generally low yield simply because of the change in this year's weather. Overwhelmingly the gardeners have been anything but downhearted; the simple truth is they recognise the fortunes of their seedlings are not only in their hands. Their view point is generally 'better luck next year'. As chair of Haverhill in Bloom this type of comment to me almost sums up the whole temperament of the competitions we run – there is some serious context, but the main thrust is to encourage more people each year to have a go, and if not too successful at first then 'better luck next year'. The Haverhill in Bloom team is seeking more people interested in taking an active role in the committee. We would like to enter Anglia in Bloom for 2008. This will help make the events and competitions 'better next year'; now we just need favourable weather conditions to help. This month we will hold an award ceremony for all who were involved. On October 7 there is a gardeners' market and car boot sale. Bring your home-grown pumpkin, heaviest wins £25. Mini-horticultural competition 10-11am, entries for Longest Pear and Marrow, Ugliest Carrot, Heaviest Apple and Largest Onion need no pre booking, just turn up. Waste survey launched

SUFFOLK residents are being urged to have their say on rubbish.

The Suffolk Waste Partnership has launched a survey of 7,000 residents, to gauge attitudes towards all aspects of waste management, from kerbside collection to recycling and disposal.

Feedback from the questionnaires will be used to help shape future waste services until 2020.

Matt Hullis, Suffolk Waste Partnership support manager, said: "Through listening to the views and wishes of residents we can increase our excellent recycling rates."

Residents urged to look out for drug factories

BY Ben Lee
Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

■ UNCOVERED . . . DS Nick Skipworth in the house in Linton where cannabis was being grown. Picture: Roger Adams 428861.

When police raided the home they discovered more than 700 plants – a drugs crop worth an estimated £60,000.

The Drug Enforcement Priority Offenders Team (Depot) was acting on intelligence from the community in Linton and Detective Chief Inspector Dan Vajzovic is appealing for the public to be vigilant for more factories as detectives continue their fight against organised drug gangs.

He said: "Cannabis factories are usually set up in residential areas, with the houses converted to allow a perfect growing ground for cannabis.

"This means the bypassing of mains electricity, installing ventilation units and sealing up windows.

"What may look like your average house from the outside could in fact be a factory for cannabis production.

DCI Vajzovic said the tell-tale signs of a factory were numerous.

He said: "There are a number of things people should look out for. These include the curtains being constantly closed, or a lot of noise when someone moves into a property, but then afterwards no-one seems to be living there.

"Sometimes there is a strange smell and paper or plastic is put outside the windows. Often there is excess heat or there is a lot of condensation."

DCI Vajzovic also asked landlords to be suspicious of anyone offering amounts of money for the house above the asking price.

He said: "In particular cash payments in this business may be seen as abnormal and my advice to any potential landlord is to get references from all tenants and ensure they know where the money from your tenant is coming from."

Anyone with information about cannabis factories should contact police on 0845 4564564 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Charity walk to visit eight city colleges

This year the Cambridge Evening News charity Press Relief, is to benefit from the walk, along with Arthur Rank House day hospice and the East Anglian Air Ambulance.

The walk, on Sunday, will begin at 9.30am from Jesus Green, Cambridge.

The four-and-a-half mile route will wind around the grounds of eight of Cambridge's historic colleges, and this year's main walk attraction, the Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences.

Last year, more than 1,700 people of all ages took part – individuals, families and corporate teams – raising more than £28,000 for charity. This year it is hoped even more will be raised for the good causes.

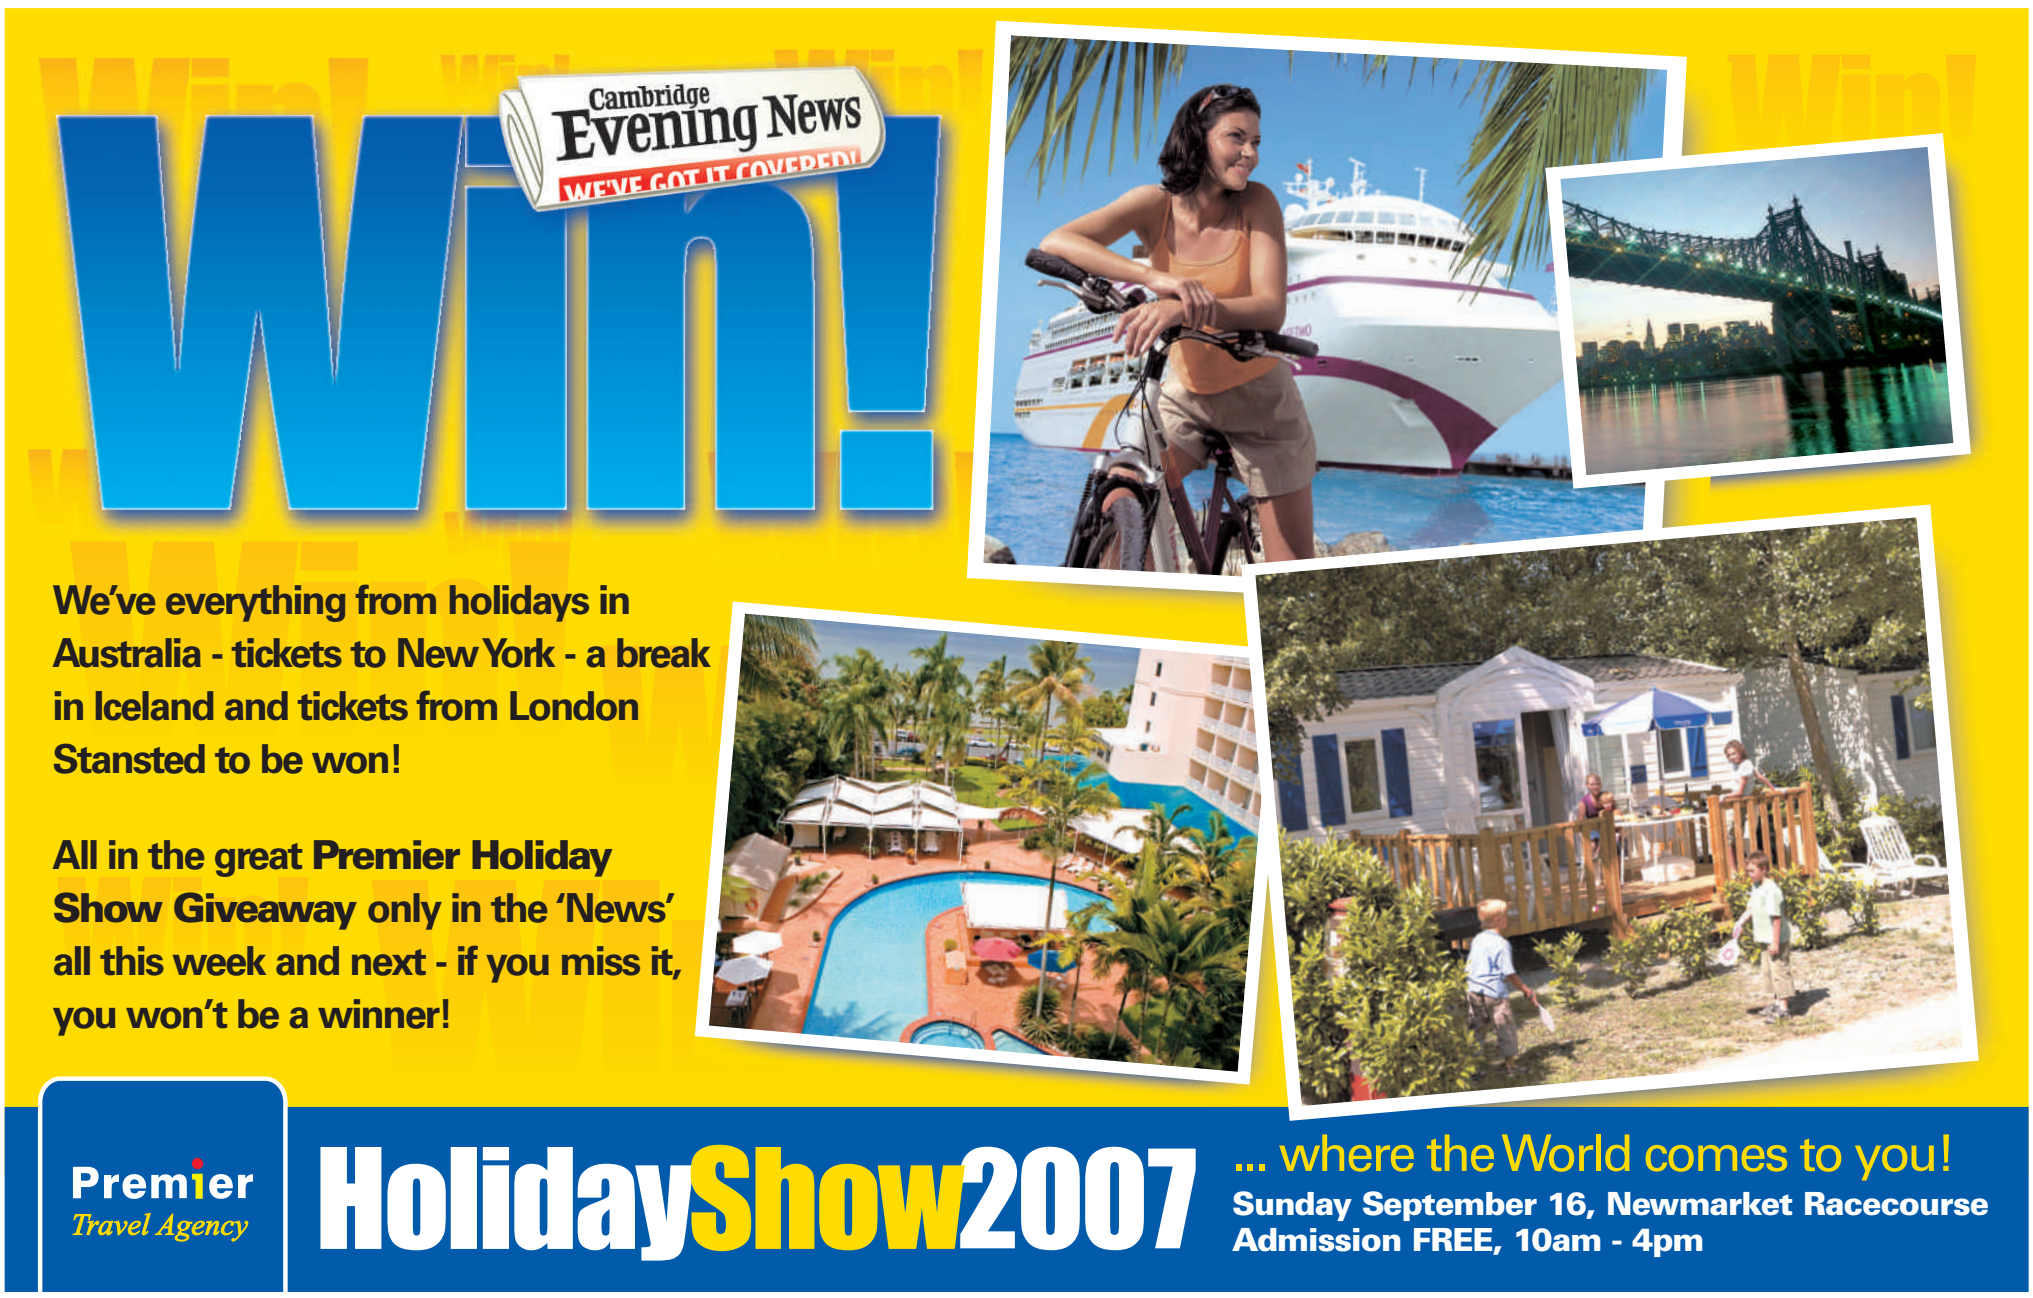

Taking part costs £6 in advance, or £10 on the day, and is free for under-16s. Participants are also asked to collect sponsorship for the charities.

Visit www.pressrelief.org or call (01223) 434378.

Child-carers assessed

MOST child-carers in Cambridgeshire are "outstanding" or "good" according to the latest ratings.

The latest inspection by watchdog Ofsted shows that 2.7 per cent of the 901 carers assessed in the county between April 2005 and June 2007 were judged to be outstanding and 61 per cent were good. Of the remainder, 34.4 per cent were judged to be satisfactory and 1.9 per cent were graded as inadequate.

The Bard is back at arts centre

OUTSPOKEN Theatre returns to Haverhill Arts Centre with Shakespeare's Measure for Measure on Saturday at 7.30pm. There's disguise and reality, justice and mercy, morality and normality and a healthy dose of lust thrown in for good measure.

■ To celebrate its 20th anniversary, Haverhill Electronic Keyboard Club presents a special matinee concert featuring The Longhorn Trio on Sunday at 2.30pm. The three brothers – Martin, Richard and David – are rising stars on the keyboard circuit, having performed at several major festivals.

■ The French cinema season starts on Monday with Paris, je T'aime (15, with English subtitles) at 7.45pm. Love in all its weird and wonderful forms is the subject of this seductive collection of 18 short films about Paris. There's three other works over the next month and a season ticket will cover all films for the price of two!

■ Former US vice president Al Gore shares his concerns on global warming in An Inconvenient Truth (U), a riveting and timely documentary on Wednesday at 7.45pm.

■ The Simpsons Movie comes to town soon. More details next week.

■ For more details or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714 140 or go to *www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

New direction for jazz vocal superstar

JAZZ sensation Clare Teal comes to Cambridge on Sunday. Teal, winner of the BBC's Jazz Vocalist of the Year, comes to the Cambridge Arts Theatre for a night of music and laughter.

She is in town to support the release of her new album, Paradisi Carousel. This follows Don't Talk, her 2005 traditional swing album. She says the work takes her in a new direction with songs that will sit comfortably alongside the likes of Norah Jones, Corinne Bailey Rae and Madeline Peyroux.

A spokesman for the Arts Theatre said: "With an extraordinary voice, the ability to write songs that promise to become classics and a wonderfully sharp wit, Clare is a rare commodity, in every way the major star."

Tickets are £10-£20. Book on (01223) 503 333.

Doors open at 7.45pm.

Comedy and classics for bright new season

By David Williams

SUMMER has been a complete wash-out but there's autumnal joy on the horizon for theatre lovers.

Cambridge's ADC Theatre has finalised its autumn season and plenty of intriguing productions lie in store.

Daisy Black, marketing manager at the ADC, said: "Featuring everything from Shakespeare and modern classics to new comedy and puppetry, the season is sure to include something to suit all tastes and ages.

"We enter the frightening dystopia of Nineteen Eighty-Four and watch social ethics stretched to breaking point in Dürrenmatt's The Visit.

"Stephens' Motortown and Churchill's The After-Dinner Joke offer challenging insights into our own modern social climate, and Berkoff's classic The Fall of the House of Usher pushes the boundaries of the physical. If you prefer musical theatre accompanied by a live band, the Broadway and West-End hit Fame! comes to our stage in November."

Among the other highlights is Shakespeare's The Winters' Tale, a return of the hugely popular Footlights' production Smokers, and the Alcock Improv and ICE teams for "impossibly quick, yet unprepared, comedy".

■ BIG NEW SEASON . . . The Selfish Giant will be just one of the family productions on offer during the autumn season at the ADC Theatre. CP.

The comic highlight of the season is expected to be the ADC/Footlights' pantomime, Once Upon a Time . . .

Daisy said: "We are also pleased to present several high quality family productions. C.S. Lewis' classic The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe returns from the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, while James and the Giant Peach promises an enchanting evening of theatre for young and old alike. The classic tale of David Copperfield will be presented towards the end of the season, and the Norwich Puppet Theatre is sure to bring a tear to a few eyes with its visiting production of The Selfish Giant.

"Finally, look out for Clive Swift (star of Keeping Up Appearances and the forthcoming Doctor Who Christmas special) in Richard Bucket Overflows, as one of our most successful alumni returns to his roots in an evening of cabaret," Daisy said.

The Winter's Tale on October 6 starts the season with tickets priced at £6/£9.

Bookings can now be made for the season. Details of dates and ticket prices can be found at www.adctheatre.com or by calling (01223) 300 085.

Aries Mar21 - Apr20

A physical injury could be a blessing in disguise. Don't despair if you're forced to change your daily routine in order to heal. Slowing down and smelling the flowers may be more important than staying in tip top condition.

Taurus Apr21 - May21

It may be necessary to throw time honoured beliefs out the window and try something new. An unconventional job or an offbeat living arrangement could ease this adjustment. Go against the grain.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Gemini May22 - June22

A new living arrangement may be imposed on you quite suddenly. It's possible you'll have to find another place or move out of your home temporarily. You may even have to live overseas to fulfil a work assignment.

Cancer June23 - July23

You may have to learn a subject by being thrown into an unfamiliar setting. An authoritarian expert will get on your nerves but listen to their advice. There's something about this instructor that makes you angry.

Leo July24 - Aug23

A new source of income could be coming your way soon, but you're not sure if you really want this money. There seem to be lots of strings attached to it. You may be enlisted to collect debts from people.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Virgo Aug24 - Sept23

You're about to undergo a personal transformation, and it won't be easy. A partner or relative may make a remark about your appearance that stings. If you've neglected your looks, you need to turn things around.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Libra Sept24 - Oct23

Breaking away from public life may be the only way to heal your broken heart. It's too painful to go to places you visited with a former lover or friend. The positive to come out of this is an appreciation of solitary pleasures.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Scorpio Oct24 - Nov22

You could be thrust into a group of unfamiliar people, which is really disorienting. These people hold beliefs that seem to be the polar opposite of yours. To add insult to injury, they seem to want to delve into your private life.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Sagittarius Nov23 - Dec21

You may be called to account for something you have done that's really irritated a relative or partner. Although you hate being forced to defend yourself that is just what you have to do. Be ready to admit your mistakes.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Capricorn Dec22 - Jan20

You feel like a fish out of water this week. Others may mock your awkwardness, but don't let that deter you from making the best of a difficult situation. You'll eventually win their admiration by holding your head high.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Aquarius Jan21 - Feb19

A loving relationship stirs up all sorts of dramas when your partner questions everything you hold dear. You've always been very certain about your values, but there's something about your other half that shatters confidence.

To hear more call 0905 232 6057

Pisces Feb20 - Mar20

Working with a friend or partner reveals some hitches in your relationship. You may not be able to contain your anger and it's possible that things will never be the same. Be prepared to face the future on your own.

Cutie Bearsuit kick off new era

A NEW era gets under way at a Cambridge venue next week.

National music chain Barfly has taken over The Graduate in Chesterton Road and the first bookings are ready to take to the stage.

Getting the ball rolling will be cult favourites Bearsuit. The Norwich six-piece were always popular with the late John Peel and his listeners, scooping three top five hits in the annual Festive 50 poll and recording four Radio One sessions.

The band see themselves as: "Stop-start-boy-girl-cutie-killer-six-piece, with everything from cinematic waltzes to catchy electro disco and hard punk screaming riot grrl noise. A mix of Belle and Sebastian, Huggy Bear and Sonic Youth with electronic twists and turns and screamy art punk."

They play on Monday, September 10, with support from Cambridge bands The Furious Sleep and Bomb Factory.

Tickets are £6 in advance from www.wegottickets.com or £7 on the night. Doors open at 7.30pm.

Upcoming autumn gigs include Ed Harcourt, The Strange Death of Liberal England, Laura Marling and Captain.

For further details, visit www.myspace.com/cambridgegraduate

■ SIX-PIECE WONDERS . . . Bearsuit takes to the stage at the first gig under The Graduate's new management. CP.

Special guests join horn consort

CAMBRIDGE Horn Consort play a special concert in Cambridge this weekend.

Internationally-acclaimed soloist and conductor Anthony Halstead has been drafted in, alongside special guests including Prime Brass and the Cambridge Orchestra.

The consort comprises 12 French horns and four Wagner tubas. The repertoire features both modern and rarely played pieces.

The concert is on Saturday at West Road Concert Hall. Tickets are £12.50 and can be booked from (01223) 357 851.

Keeping laughs in the family

FARCICAL comedy is guaranteed in the latest production from the Over Players.

It Runs In The Family, by Ray Clooney, takes place at Over Community Centre on Friday and Saturday. Performances are at 7.45pm, with tickets available for £7 adults, £4 concessions from (01954) 230 056.

Pub date for indie chart stars

RISING indie band Dartz! play The Portland Arms in Cambridge next Wednesday.

This year has seen the band tour Europe, release a critically-acclaimed album called This Is My Ship and score two top-10 indie chart singles.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.
- ☐ Schools.
- ☐ Professional Bodies/Trade Unions.
- ☐ Motoring organisations.
- ☐ Newsagent.
- ☐ Friends and relatives.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Jag's XF could become top cat

JAGUAR has revealed one of the most important new cars in its history, the XF.

The replacement for the S Type, the XF is Jaguar's entry in the highly competitive executive car market, competing with the likes of BMW's 5 Series, Merc's E-Class and Audi's A6. To be competitive in that market, the car needs to be practical, spacious and able to eat up the miles while also being sporty and engaging to drive.

Jaguar has hit the challenges head on and has created a vehicle that holds true to the company's values. The XF is a true Jaguar by being stylish and fast but it has space inside for five adults with room for luggage. The blend of performance and practicality from the new car could see it become the class leader.

The S Type has long been an excellent car to drive being comfortable and quick and having excellent handling. What it wasn't though was particularly spacious and this problem has now been solved with the XF. The interior will be a pleasure to be in with a clean and stylish design focusing on upmarket elements. When the driver gets in and pushes the start button, the gear selector rises up out of the transmission tunnel. Little touches like the air conditioning vents lying flush to the dashboard until the ignition is switched on and touch sensing buttons for the interior lights and glovebox add to the sense of luxury that is created by the leather, wood and aluminium finishings.

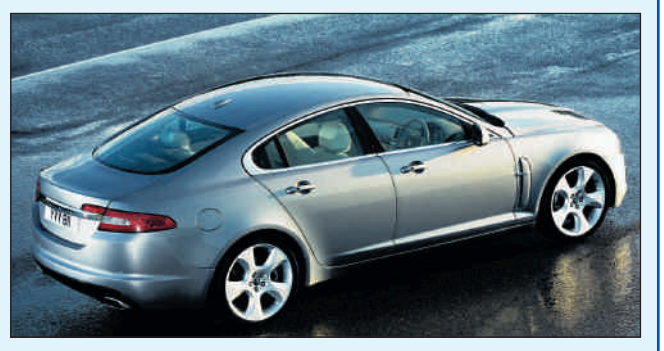

The engines on offer will be a 2.7 diesel and 3.0 V6 and 4.2 V8 petrol units. 0-60 times will be between 7.9 and 5.1 seconds with top speeds limited at 155mph. Power from the diesel will be 201bhp with 240, 300 and 420bhp in the 3.0 V6, 4.2 V8 and 4.2 V8 supercharged models.

With the XF being such an important model for Jaguar, it had to be good. Thankfully for the company, it looks like it will be.

■ STYLISH . . . Jaguar has worked as hard on the inside as the exterior – and it shows.

■ JAGUAR XF . . . dynamic and luxurious, it could be top in its class.

Nissan develops anti-drink concept

FIHC8

Nissan has revealed a new concept car featuring multiple preventative features designed to reduce drink-driving.

The various technologies are designed to detect the driver's state of sobriety and to activate a range of preventive measures including immobilisation of the vehicle.

Alcohol odour Sensors

A hi-sensitivity alcohol odour sensor is built into the transmission shift knob which is able to detect the presence of alcohol in the perspiration of the driver's palm as he or she attempts to start driving.

■ SENSOR . . . picks up alcohol odours.

When the alcohol-level detected is above the pre-determined threshold, the system automatically locks the transmission, immobilising the car. A "drink-driving" voice alert is also issued via the car navigation system.

Additional alcohol odour sensors are also incorporated into the driver's and passenger seats to detect the presence of alcohol in the air inside the vehicle cabin. When alcohol is detected, the system issues both a voice alert and a message alert on the navigation system monitor.

Facial Monitoring System

A camera is mounted on the instrument cluster facing the driver to monitor the driver's face. The system is calibrated to monitor the driver's state of consciousness through eyes. When the system detects signs of drowsiness, a voice and message alert is triggered via the navigation system.

Additionally, a seat-belt mechanism is activated which tightens around the driver to gain his or her immediate attention.

Driving Behaviour

By constantly monitoring the operational behaviour of the vehicle (eg sensing if the vehicle is drifting out of its driving lane), the system can identify signs of inattentiveness or distraction in the driver.

When the system detects such behaviour, voice and message alerts are issued via the navigation system. The seat-belt alert mechanism is also activated, tightening around the driver to gain immediate attention.

This concept car was developed as an exploratory platform to showcase breakthrough technologies that could potentially be applied to future production cars, part of an ongoing programme from Nissan contributing towards the prevention of drink-driving.

Nissan has already launched and is developing several initiatives to help prevent drunk-driving. In June, the company introduced the "drink-driving" message alert on its navigation system. In July, Nissan also began testing a new on-board breathalyser system in cooperation with several local government authorities, where an interlock mechanism will immobilise the vehicle if the driver's breath indicates the presence of alcohol above a specified level.

In Japan, the company's safety vision is to halve the number of traffic fatalities or serious injuries involving Nissan vehicles by 2015 compared with the level in 1995.

Ford plans to put Verve into the supermini sector

FORD is set to cause quite a stir at this month's Frankfurt Motor Show when it unveils the new Ford Verve Concept.

The concept is particularly important as it is likely to form the basis of the next Fiesta supermini.

Ford will gauge the reactions of the public at the motor show before deciding whether the design direction is the right way to go. Which looks likely to be thumbs up!

The design is bold and sporty with a steeply rising shoulder line, short overhangs and prominent grille creating strong stylistic features. The styling inside and out is a product of Ford's "kinetic" philosophy which also inspired the acclaimed Mondeo and S-Max.

The sleek design isn't confined to the exterior. The interior, particularly the dashboard has been designed with strong, ergonomic details. Ford has included the Convers+ system is at the centre of the dashboard, allowing easy access to all the driver-operated functions. There is a large colour screen that displays all the important information at a glance and the surrounding switchgear has a look and texture that wouldn't be out of place in a car up a class.

With the expected positive public reaction and the implementation of the "kinetic" design in previous models, it seems likely that many of the features shown on the Verve Concept will make it into production.

■ QUITE A LOOKER . . . Ford may put the Verve into production as the next Fiesta.

■ STRIKING . . . looks like a coupe.

Just 34% of pupils now walk to school

PARENTS need to question why they go on the school run, a survey out this week suggests.

Nearly half of those who get the car out for their children do so because of the distance involved, the survey from insurance company elephant.co.uk found. Yet 68 per cent of the parents live less than two miles from the school.

And 87 per cent of them believe that they are contributing to traffic congestion problems by going on the school run.

The survey also found that 14 per cent choose to take their offspring to lessons by car for safety reasons and that 56 per cent of children are now taken to school by car.

Of the parents polled, 57 per cent said they had walked to school when they were children, compared to only 34 per cent who walk now.

When those in the survey were children themselves, 13 per cent of them were driven to school.

Elephant.co.uk managing director Brian Martin said: "It's odd that parents use distance as an excuse considering how many live relatively close to school and especially how many of them used to walk themselves.

"It makes sense for children to walk to school wherever possible as childhood obesity rates are rising in the UK with around 1 million children under the age of 16 classed as obese."

	CHILDREN	PARENTS' ERA
Driven	56%	13%
Walk	34%	57%
School bus	5%	12%
Public transport	3%	13%
Bike	2%	5%

For those parents who continue to exercise their right to drive their offspring to school, there are some suggestions on travelling safely with youngsters on board.

They include:

■ All child passengers should use a car safety or booster seat – always read the manufacturer's instructions on how to fit a child's car seat properly and ask for advice if you have any queries whatsoever.

■ Pregnant mums should always wear a seat belt in the car no matter how far the journey is – for extra safety and comfort, mums-to-be should also wear a pregnancy Bump Belt.

■ Make sure you lock the doors while driving, and never leave your child alone in your vehicle.

■ Fit a child view mirror to your windscreen to keep an eye on your child – if you must discipline your child, find a place to pull over.

■ SAFE . . . visit www.clippasafe.co.uk

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

EXECUTIVE mile crunchers come under the spotlight in advice website UsedCarExpert.com's regular what-to-buy selection.

The online outfit's Matt Tumbridge says that car price guides often state that the recommended mileage for a three-year-old Audi A6 2.0 TDI is 30,000 miles, but this simply doesn't hold up.

"If you go to buy one, you will find the vast majority have done over 50,000 miles," says Tumbridge. "I assume they have been a hit with fleet managers, boosted by lots of business mileage.

"The key point for private buyers is that dealers are not going to knock a lot off the price because the guide says it is high mileage. They will know it is not. So if you are in the market for an executive mile cruncher, here are a couple of alternatives that match up to the listed A6," he adds.

Here's the UsedCar Expert.com selection:

■ THE AUDI A6 . . . perhaps the best used Teutonic example of them all.

■ Mercedes E-Class (1992-2002) – This car has it all, says Tumbridge: image, quality, and reliability. Up to 1995, Mercedes were still building cars with the strength of tanks, and these cars are now very cheap. Later versions, while not so strong, are still affordable, especially one with big petrol engines.

Most economical model is the E220 Cdi, capable of a 44.8mpg average, while best used buy is listed as the E300TD.

UsedCarExpert.com recommends 22 pre-buy checks, and prices a year-2000 E200 Classic at around £4,500. A 2003 version, by contrast, will fetch around £12,000.

■ Volkswagen Passat (1996-2004) – This car is not as prestigious as the other two listed here, says Tumbridge, but it is roomy, well finished, and cheap to own. There's good engines and better specifications from 2001 onwards. Lots are in circulation, he points out, so the wide choice means prices are falling, albeit slowly.

Most economical is cited as the 1.9 Tdi 115, with a 53.3mpg combined average, with best used buy the 1.9 Tdi SE. UsedCar Expert.com lists 22 pre-buy checks, and prices a 2000 1.9 Tdi SE at around £2,700. Move on to 2004 and the same version will realise some £8,000.

■ Audi A6 (1997-2004) – The A6 easily matches BMW and Mercedes rivals, and is arguably better built both inside and out. But Tumbridge says the Audi badge does not have the same image levels, so that means lower prices. The Avant, or estate version, is usefully large, he adds.

Most economical A6 is the 1.9 Tdi 115, offering 52.3mpg overall, and best used buy is the 2.4 V6, with its big engine, decent power, and cheaper used prices.

UsedCarExpert.com again lists 22 pre-buy checks, and prices a 2000 1.9 Tdi at the £4,700 mark, with a 2004 version at £10,000.

HIGHWAYS AGENCY

Public notice

HIGHWAYS AGENCY
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 – SECTION 14(1)(a) THE A14 TRUNK ROAD (STOW-CUM-QUY JUNCTION 35 TO MILTON JUNCTION 33, CAMBRIDGESHIRE) (TEMPORARY RESTRICTION AND PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 200

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to make an Order on the A14 Trunk Road in the County of Cambridgeshire to allow for the replacement of bridge joints on the River Cam overbridge to be carried out in safety.

It is expected that the works would take place overnight (9pm Mondays to Fridays - 5am the following mornings, and 8pm Saturday to 6am Sunday) for a maximum of 7 nights between Monday 24 September and Monday 8 October 2007. The Order would come into force from 17 September 2007 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The effect of the Order would be to –

- impose a speed limit of 50mph on the A14 westbound carriageway between a point 1 kilometre west of the centre point of the Stow-Cum-Quy Interchange (Junction 35) western underbridge and a point 5 kilometres west of the centre point of that bridge;
- close the westbound carriageway of the A14 between the westbound exit slip roads at Stow-Cum-Quy Interchange (Junction 35) and Milton Interchange (Junction 33); and
- close the A14 westbound entry slip roads at Fen Ditton Interchange (Junction 34) and Stow-Cum-Quy Interchange (Junction 35).

Diversion routes would be in operation during the closure. Should you require further information on these diversions please contact the Highways Agency at the address below.

The temporary mandatory speed restriction (which would not apply to emergency services vehicles), closure (which would not apply to works or emergency services vehicles) and diversion routes would be clearly signposted throughout the works.

Mrs J C Glasson
An official of the Highways Agency

Deputy Editor

Our Deputy Editor has just landed his own daily newspaper editor's chair. Now the award-winning Cambridge Evening News is looking for an ambitious and highly talented journalist to fill the role.

The Cambridge Evening News is the East of England's Daily Newspaper of the Year and has won awards for successful and high-profile campaigns two years running, plus a host of other awards. The new Deputy Editor will be expected to help take us to the next level of editorial excellence.

The successful candidate will have a sharp news sense, an eye for design and know how to sell a story. They will have bags of energy and ideas, and the ability to motivate a first-class team of journalists producing lively and agenda-setting morning and evening editions, as well as a series of successful weekly newspapers. Proven management and leadership ability is a must.

They will have proven experience of running a busy Newsdesk or subbing team and show a keen interest in developing our online media output.

The successful candidate will regularly be called on to run the newspaper in the editor's absence and to represent the newspaper in the community. They should also have the ability to cope with editorial budgets, recruitment and the full range of duties that go with running a busy and successful daily newspaper.

For an application pack, please call Karen Brooks, Editor's PA on: 01223 434309, or email: karenbrooks@cambridge-news.co.uk

Closing date for applications: Friday, September 14.

We are a leading regional Newspaper publisher and a member of Iliffe News and Media. Our titles include the award-winning Cambridge Evening News, 11 weekly newspapers, a stable of magazines and a suite of websites.

We offer a competitive salary, 5 weeks' annual holiday and free on site parking. Following a probationary period there is an option to join a contributory pension scheme and subsidised health cash plan.

TRAIN AS A JOURNALIST

Journalism is often seen as glamorous and exciting but, as with any occupation, success comes only after much hard work and routine activity. However, each working day as a journalist is different and the training you receive will give you the flexibility to cover a wide range of news stories and features.

Journalism draws on all the knowledge and skills you have acquired and can give you a tremendous sense of achievement. If you've got what it takes, journalism could be the career for you!

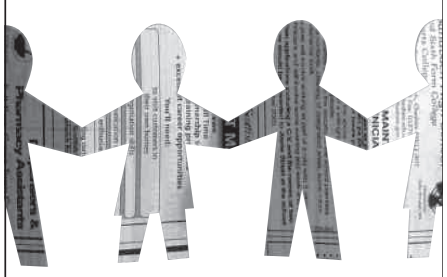

SO WHERE DO I START?

The NCTJ is the principal provider of journalism qualifications and training and offers a wide variety of training and learning options to suit everyone.

NCTJ qualifications are what editors look for when they are recruiting trainee journalists and these can be gained through full-time, part-time, distance learning or on-the-job training courses. We also offer press photography and photo-journalism training.

BABRAHAM RESEACH CAMPUS
Opportunities in the Small Animal Facility

The Babraham Research Campus is the home of the Babraham Institute which is world renowned for its research in life sciences that leads to new medicines and treatments for human diseases; and Babraham Bioscience Technologies Ltd (BBT), the wholly owned trading company of the Babraham Institute.

SUPPORT SERVICES TECHNICIAN - ref. KM/BBT/P

BBT is looking for a full-time Support Services Technician to join the Support Services team in the barrier unit of the Institute's modern, well equipped, Small Animal Facility. The main duties are to clean and wash animal cages and bottles using machines. Other duties include liaison with the maintenance department to organise repairs and assisting with the small animal facility stores. Full training will be given including optional training for use of a fork lift truck. All staff working in the barrier unit are required to shower in and wear protective clothing. Job-share applicants will be considered. Interviews will take place on Monday, 1st October 2007.

ANIMAL TECHNICIANS - ref. EAT/BBT/P2
Starting Salary Range - £15,532 - £16,871 p.a.
Plus an allowance of £3500 p.a.

BBT is also looking for experienced animal technicians to work in the Institute's Small Animal Facility. Duties include the care, maintenance and husbandry of rodents housed conventionally and in barriered systems as well as performing regulated procedures. Responsibilities will also include assisting with staff training and with day-to-day organisation of the unit. Candidates must have the Certificate/Level 2 in IAT (or equivalent), hold or have held a Home Office Licence and have experience of working with rodents in animal technology. Applicants must also have a good understanding of basic genetics and breeding systems and their practical application.

The successful applicants will be encouraged and sponsored to gain further IAT and higher educational qualifications relevant to the post, through day-release (subject to availability). All successful applicants will be expected to participate in the weekend/public holidays rota system when trained. Part-time or job share applicants will be considered for these posts. Interviews will take place on Monday, 8th October 2007.

Starting salaries will be according to qualifications and experience. Please email bbt.personnel@babraham.co.uk or telephone 01223 496365 for an information pack and application form, quoting the appropriate reference. The closing date for completed applications for both posts is Wednesday, 19th September 2007. All shortlisted candidates will be required to look around the Facility immediately following the interview.

A key management role within the Technical Services Department, you will report to and support the Deputy Technical Services Manager. Managing a team of up to 30 staff and maintaining stock levels within stores and vans to meet business needs, you will also supervise contractors, ensuring that all work is carried out efficiently and within budget, whilst adhering to health and safety guidelines. Overseeing the planned maintenance programmes of our villas, reactive maintenance is imperative as you respond quickly to any issues as they arise. Through the effective management of our Technical Help Desk, you and your team will attend to any reported maintenance issues, liaising with guests to ensure that the issues are dealt with efficiently and with minimum disruption. As we continually improve our processes, we will welcome your suggestions to achieve our aim to protect, maintain and improve the environment.

With supervisory experience in a similar role, you will have excellent interpersonal and motivational skills and recognise the importance of quality control and guest relations within our industry. Time served, you will be qualified to O.N./H.N.C. or equivalent in either Electrical/Mechanical Engineering, Plumbing or Building. Computer literacy is desirable.

We offer full training and flexible working arrangements for most positions, plus a great range of benefits including pensions, discounted holidays, retail products and health and beauty treatments, free use of the gym, pool and other village facilities, incentive and service recognition schemes, profit sharing and 30 days' holiday per year.

To download an application form, visit www.centerparcs.co.uk and click on 'Company Information' and 'Job Opportunities'. Alternatively please telephone the Jobline on 01842 894804 or email workopportunitiesef@centerparcs.co.uk

ST CLARE HOSPICE

Fundraising Team Expansion

Our Hospice needs to grow and to achieve our vision for the future we have identified several new roles in an expanded fundraising team.

Corporate Fundraiser c. £25K + pension contribution
An experienced fundraiser is needed to significantly develop relationships with the corporate sector. Current supporters include Tottenham Hotspur Football Club.

Trust and Legacy Officer c. £25K + pension contribution
Developing a legacy campaign and a programme of trust applications for St Clare requires experience, skill and knowledge.

Lottery Development Officer - c. £17K + pension contribution
The Hospice lottery needs to grow rapidly. Experience preferred.

Fundraising Volunteer Co-ordinator c. £17K (pro rata 22.5 hrs/week) + pension contribution
Volunteers are essential to raise funds, staff our six shops and run events.

Fundraising Administrator c.£15K + pension contribution

Closing date: 28 September 2007
Interviews w/c: 8 October 2007

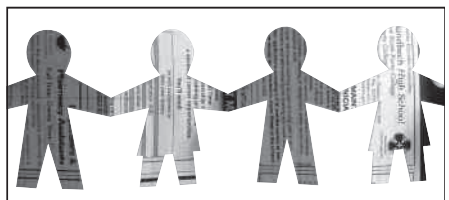

For an informal discussion please contact Melanie Nightingale, Interim Director of Fundraising Mon/Wed/Fri on 01279 773758 or Richard Cowie, Chief Executive on 01279 773703.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S OFFICE

Canvassing Staff

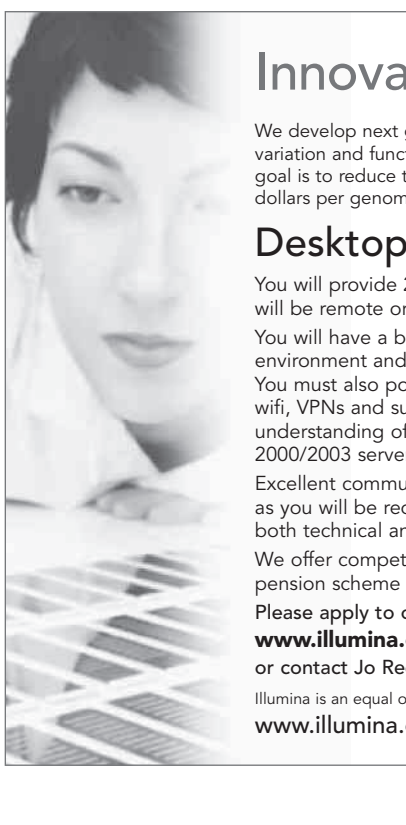

£5.80 ph (pay award pending)

Required October - November, part time

Will you have some spare time in the late afternoon / evenings and weekends from 25 October to the end of November? If so, we are looking for canvassers to work on the annual update of the Register of Electors. You must have good communication skills and access to transport (travelling expenses will be payable).

Canvassers are needed right across the Borough to canvass wards, polling districts or a cluster of villages. Provided the work is carried out within the set timescale canvassers can decide when they will put in the hours.

Closing date: 26 September 2007.
Interviews: 9 / 10 October 2007. Post no. CECOOO2.

Innovation is in our genes

We develop next generation tools for large-scale analysis of genetic variation and function, creating the way for tomorrow's medicine. Our goal is to reduce the cost of human gene sequencing to a few thousand dollars per genome.

Desktop Support Analyst

You will provide 24/7 technical support to users, many of who will be remote or field based, working on 2000/XP/2003.

You will have a background of supporting users in a multi-site environment and possess Microsoft accreditation or equivalent. You must also possess solid working knowledge of networking, wifi, VPNs and supporting cell phones/mobile devices and an understanding of TCP/IP/WINS/DNS/DHCP and Microsoft 2000/2003 server, Active Directory.

Excellent communication and problem solving skills are essential, as you will be required to convey highly technical information to both technical and non-technical staff. Ref: 325

Tournament win a Cherry on Wratting's summer cake

WEST Wratting Youth under-10 reds completed their summer season schedule, entering and winning a highly-competitive Cherry Hinton Tournament.

With tournament victories at Newmarket Town and the David Beckham Academy, and a runners-up spot the previous week at Cambridge United event already under their belts, the warriors of Wratting were among the favourites at Cherry Hinton.

The 15 teams in the competition were split into three groups. Wratting successfully steered their way into the semi-finals by topping their section with wins over Girton, Elsenham and Chesterton Eagles and a goalless draw with Sawston.

Wratting started the game at such a pace that the home team were struggling to contain the ever increasing attacks.

The breakthrough eventually came with a couple of minutes of the first half remaining.

Wratting took to the pitch for the second half and showed a mature standard of football that ensured there was no way back for the hosts and a second goal mid-way through the period settled any remaining nerves.

The final would be a first-ever encounter for Wratting against Histon Hornets.

From the first whistle, it was apparent that Wratting were determined to secure yet another tournament victory, as the pace, movement and power of the team swatted aside the plucky Hornets.

Every credit must be given to the Histon lads for not letting their heads drop and playing to the end, but the final score of 4-0 was a fair representation of a very one-sided final.

Wratting's triumph saw them scored 10 goals throughout the tournament, while conceding none. The goalscorers were William Bailey (four), Alex Carter (four), Stephen Boyles and Cameron Kidd.

Every player performed on the day and the future looks very bright for the young team.

Squad: B Eames, S Street, S Elsom, P Jenkinson, S Boyles, C Kidd, J Ruthven, L Bailey, A Carter, J Osuchukwu, W Bailey.

■ WEST WRATTING under-11 opened their season with a 5-1 victory in a friendly against Burwell Tigers at Bull Lane.

Wratting were slow out of the blocks and it took an opener from the Tigers to shake up.

A well-taken hat-trick for Lambert and one apiece from Bush and Payne finally clinched the victory.

Elliott had an outstanding second half for Wratting and threatened the Burwell left flank consistently, while Foster gradually found his feet in the first-half work-out .

Ager and Scotton reformed their solid defensive partnership and kept Burwell to long-range shots that demanded sharp saves from Millar.

Lambert's goals were a small percentage of his play, with his deft touch and intelligent passing and movement certain to be a major force for Wratting this season.

Massie and Stevenson looked steady with more to come and Bush always troubled the opposition.

Payne deserved his goal after valuable contribution to the attack and earned the man-of-the-match award.

Wratting spokesman Kevin Ager commented: "It was a comfortable scoreline over 60 minutes of determination and spirit that will be required this season in what will be an interesting league."

■ KITTED OUT . . . for their final season in the Cambridgeshire Colts League before stepping up into senior football, West Wratting under-17 are looking forward to their opening match when they will be wearing new home shirts sponsored by First Cast Tackle, of Charterhouse Industrial Estate, Haverhill. Manager/coach Jamie Bush has added a few new faces to the squad for the new campaign. CP.

'Heath slide to league defeat

HORSEHEATH were beaten when they visited Barrington for a CCA Senior League, Division One, mid-table clash.

Stuart Ketteridge made 47 not out and Alan Ketteridge amassed 42 as the travelling outfit put 183 for 7 on the scoreboard.

Marcus Jarman (60) and Mark Ferrari (54) took the game away from Gary Ellis' men and they sealed their eighth victory of a decent season, reaching 184 for 3.

■ WESTON COLVILLE are in danger of being sucked into the relegation fight in Division Two of the CCA Senior League after they went down by 117 runs to Khalsa on Saturday.

KARTING

Ben aims to follow the stars

RISING young kart racing star Ben Barker is making a major impact on the sport that spawned top Formula One stars Lewis Hamilton and Jenson Button.

The 16 year old, from Clare, has been competing in since he was nine years old, starting out in the Cadet class.

After winning most of his novice races, building up a large collection of trophies, he moved up to the Junior TKM category in 2005 and finished near the top of the section in his first year.

In 2006, he began competing in the Super 1 class, which is the British Nationals, where Hamilton and Button made their names.

Among his achievements was victory in the Buckmore Park Championship.

This year, he is again competing in Super 1, and is one of the leading competitors out of a field of 30, and he is looking to secure a top three finish in the championship.

This will pave his way for next season when he is hoping to move up to Senior TKM Super 1 class.

In addition, he has also been doing some testing in Formula Ford to hopefully set him up for 2009.

To keep him on the right track, Barker is very keen to find local support for sponsorship to help him meet the cost of his motorsport as he moves up the ladder.

Anybody interested can log on to his website at www.benbarker-racing.co.uk, for further information.

FOOTBALL

Martin's double strike sees off Walsham

TWO goals for Martin Westcott set Haverhill up for an 4-2 FA Cup rout over Walsham, to send Steve Taylor's side through to the first qualifying round at the second time of asking.

Having produced a goalless tie in the original game at Walsham on Saturday, the rematch was full of action and goals and action from the off as Haverhill invoked the spirit of last season at Hamlet Croft, which saw Rovers reach the fourth qualifying round for the first time in the club's history.

Rovers front man Westcott opened the scoring on 15 minutes with a finish from an Adam Bensaud ball and he made it 2-0 early on in the second half from a Wayne Goddard free kick before Walsham pulled it back to 2-1.

However, Richard Heller re-established the two-goal cushion for the home side on 70 minutes with a 25-yard drive.

Walsham managed to get a second, but they had a man sent off for throwing an elbow, and Paul Stokes then came off he bench to make the tie safe with Haverhill's fourth near the end.

FA CUP PRELIMINARY ROUND REPLAY

Rovers' boss Steve Taylor said: "It was a great result. We played really well and dominated the play and looked dangerous every time we had the ball going forward.

"We meet Mildenhall now in the next round, but I have a good record against them as a player and a manager, so we will see what happens."

Haverhill return to Ridgeons League, Premier Division, action tomorrow night when they host Needham Market, while, on Tuesday evening, Soham visit Hamlet Croft.

GOLF

Allison and Smy notch seniors' win

THERE were more than 100 entries for each of the open events held at Haverhill Golf Club's Coupals Road course during the past week.

The first event was the seniors' open, which was won by Brian Smy and Bob Allison, of Diss GC, who accumulated 41 points in the four-ball, better-ball round. This gave the pair a countback success over Roy Hodges and Peter Bernadine (Gosfield Lake).

A further shot back in third were Eric Howlett and Mike Gladden, of The Essex.

The format for the mixed event was also four-ball, better-ball and the same winning score of 41 stableford points was also returned with Brian Runham (Menzies) and Helen Philpotts being the leading team, again on countback.

The runners-up were Graham Smith and Jill Wombwell (Saffron Walden), who were one ahead of Brian and Glenys Grove (Hintlesham and Newton Green).

■ The results of the two junior events, held at Haverhill GC during mid-week were:

P Bowers Trophy – medal: E Baker 57, H Mills, J Warwick 68. Stableford A Archer 38, C Sigler 36, E Tooth 28.

■ A mixed match between Haverhill and Seckford was declared a draw, while the ladies' August NSCR Stableford went to Heather Eldred with 36 points.

Second and third were Pamela Reed 34 and Doreen Darbey 33.
